FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

APPLE VALLEY—In a vote of confidence—and to promote continuity—the Mojave Water Agency Board of Directors chose to retain the same officers for 2012.

Chosen for officers for the coming year are:

- Art Bishop, President, Division 5 Director
- Kimberly Cox, Vice-President, Division 1 Director
- Doug Shumway, Secretary, Division 7 Director
- Beverly Lowry, Treasurer, Division 6 Director

Jim Ventura, Richard Hall, and Mike Page are the other Board members. The ritual to select officers is annual.

MWA Board meetings are held the second and fourth Thursday of each month at 4:30 p.m. at MWA Headquarters, located at 22450 Headquarters Drive in Apple Valley.

Meeting agendas are posted a week in advance on the Agency's website at www.mojavewater.org.

Created by High Desert voters in July of 1960, the Mojave Water Agency serves approximately 4,900 square miles of the High Desert in San Bernardino County, including the communities of Adelanto, Apple Valley, Barstow, Hesperia, Joshua Tree, Landers, Lenwood, Lucerne Valley, Newberry Springs, Victorville, Yermo, and Yucca Valley. MWA is the only water wholesaler in the region and has the ability to import water from the California Aqueduct to ensure a sustainable supply to meet present and future water demands.
